IRAN CROWNED CHAMPIONS AT ATF 12&U TEAM COMPETITION WEST ASIA

Putting up a dominant show, Iran emerged champion in both the boys' and girls' categories at the ATF 12&U Team Competition West Asia, "supported by KTF".

Both the finalists in each category qualified for the ATF 12&U Team Competition Finals to be held in Singapore in August.

In the boys' final, Iran edged out Saudi Arabia 2-1 after asserting their dominance in group stage.

Iran had topped Group A, winning all their matches, while Saudi Arabia clinched the second spot with two wins.

From Group B, Lebanon finished on top with three wins, and Jordan took second place, securing two victories.

In the semi-finals, Iran dominated Jordan 2-0, while Saudi Arabia narrowly defeated Lebanon 2-1.

Jordan claimed third place by edging out Lebanon 2-1 in a close match.

In the girls' category, Iran dominated the group stage with three wins and topped the standings, while Jordan were placed second with two victories.

Lebanon finished third with one win, and Syria without a win finished on bottom.

The competition took place in Amman, Jordan, from April 21 to 25, 2025. Featuring a total of eight nations (8 team in boys & 4 teams in girls) competing for a chance to qualify for the finals in Singapore this August.

With this success, both Iran and Saudi Arabia in the boys' category, as well as Iran and Jordan in the girls' category, qualified for the ATF 12&U Team Competition Finals.

Congratulations to the champions and the qualified teams. Best of luck to everyone for the finals in Singapore.
